

Nine Prisoners Taken to State Penitentiary

Deputy Sheriffs N. P. Tanner and Harry Haag left yesterday afternoon for Baton Rouge with nine recently convicted prisoners who will be turned over to the penitentiary. Curtis Tanner, the young son of Deputy Tanner, accompanied his father on the trip to Baton Rouge.

The following prisoners were transferred: Frank Gandy, Sam Smith, John Nathan, Nick Starks; Green Okra; J. S. Eced, Emmoline Duncan, Primus Moore and Isaah Bryant. Henry Okra and Gilliam, brought from the pen to serve as witnesses against Green Okra, were also returned to the pen yesterday.
