

PRISONERS AND INSANE TAKEN FROM CADDO PRISON

Due principally to the transfer of prisoners to the state penitentiary and interdicted persons to the state asylum for insane, the number of guests in Jailer Tilman Gamblin's parish hotel has been cut almost fifty per cent the past day or two. The number confined in the jail now, including foreign prisoners and federal accused persons, totals only twenty-five. This is the slimmest bunch the parish jail in Caddo has had to consider in a long time.

Eleven prisoners left Tuesday night, in custody of Deputy Sheriff "Doc" Tanner and Henry Haag, for Baton Rouge. The party consisted of the following: Frank Gandy, robbery; J. S. Reed, forgery, Henry Okra, Robert William and Green Okra, burglary and larceny, the first two having been brought from the penitentiary for use as witnesses against Green Okra, who pleaded guilty; John Nathan and Nick Starks, burglary and larceny; Emmerline Duncan, burglary; Sam Robinson, alias Sam Amith, false pretenses; Isaiah Bryant, forgery; and Primas Moore, burglary and larceny.

Special Deputies Bush Jarratt and Dick Gamblin and Officer Hall conveyed eight interdicted patients to the asylum at Pineville, namely: Martha Brooks, negress; Susie Scott, negress; M. L. Moreland; Ethel Smith alias Harris; E. R. Zeller; Thomas R. Black; Dr. C. A. Walker, and Charles Griffen, negro, the latter having escaped about two years from the asylum.

Several others are in the Caddo jail as the result of interdiction proceedings. Only a few are there awaiting trial in Caddo.
