KILLERS ESCAPE IN AUTO AFTER SHOOTING NEGRO

Ike Buffin, negro, was shot and killed in front of his home Saturday night by unknown parties, who made their escape in an automobile. No arrests have been made, but it is thought the parties believed white, are known.

It is said that Buffin was called to a car in front of his home, five miles south of Waskom, to help remedy car trouble. When he reached the car the men opened fire and killed him. The car left immediately.

The men who did the killing are believed to be white. It is said that Buffin and the men had quarrelled the day before. Although no arrests have been made, it is understood that a number of clues point to the identity of the killers.
