

GREEN OKRA PLEADS GUILTY.

Green Okra, a negro, yesterday pleaded guilty to burglarizing a store at Greenwood. When Okra was arraigned he pleaded not guilty and the district attorney prepared to fight the case. He sent to the penitentiary at Baton Rouge for Henry Okra and Robert Reed, a pair of negro convicts sent up from Caddo parish last December for pleading guilty to burglarizing the same store that Green Okra entered.

When Green saw the two convicts in the hall chained together awaiting a chance to testify against him, he decided that it was all off and he made haste to plead guilty and beg the mercy of the court.

The two convicts held a regular levee in the corridor of the courthouse and answered many questions propounded to them by other negroes. Several of the questioners were particularly anxious as to the kind of food given the convicts by the state.
